BLACK PEOPLE AND THE 1980 CENSUS
PROCEEDINGS FROM A CONFERENCE ON THE POPULATION UNDERCOUNT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS................................................................. iii
INTRODUCTION.......................................................................................... 1

OPENING PLENARY: BLACK PEOPLE AND THE 1980 CENSUS: THE UNDERCOUNT AND WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT

Opening Remarks

Ronald Bailey .............................................................. 22
Executive Director, Illinois Council for Black Studies

Introduction of Speaker

Stanley D. Moors .............................................................. 27
Regional Director (Chicago)
Bureau of the Census

Speaker

“Adjusting for Missing Data: Whether, When, and How?”

George Hall .............................................................. 28
Deputy Director, Bureau of the Census

Response

Doris Saunders .............................................................. 47
Department of Mass Communication
Jackson State University
Chair, Census Bureau Advisory Committee on the Black Population

Response

William J. Wilson .............................................................. 51
Chair, Department of Sociology
University of Chicago

Discussion .............................................................................. 56

PANEL: RACISM AND THE NUMBERS GAME

Moderator

Cheryl Johnson .............................................................. 82
Chair, Afro-American Studies Program
Loyola University and Co-Chair, Illinois Council for Black Studies

Comments and Paper

“Racism and the Numbers Game: A Critique of the Census Enumeration of Black People and A Proposal for Action”

Gerald McWorter .............................................................. 85
Director, Afro-American Studies and Research Program, University of Illinois (Urbana); Co-Chair, Illinois Council for Black Studies

Comments and Paper

“The Synthetic Method: Its Feasibility for Deriving the Census Undercount for States and Local Areas”

Robert Hill .............................................................. 171
Director of Research
National Urban League
Former Chair, Census Bureau Advisory Committee on the Black Population

Comments

“The Black Undercount and Political Issues”

Henry Kirksey .............................................................. 233
Jackson, Mississippi
Mississippi State Senate

Discussion .............................................................................. 272

PANEL: THE CENSUS AND BLACK ELECTED OFFICIALS

Moderator

Gerald McWorter .............................................................. 265
Illinois Council for Black Studies

Comments

Bennett Stewart (Chicago) .............................................................. 265
U.S. House of Representatives

Discussion .............................................................................. 294

Comments

Richard Newhouse (Chicago) .............................................................. 296
Illinois State Senate

Paper

“The Census and Black Elected Officials” .............................................................. 305
Albert Vann (Brooklyn)
New York State Assembly

Discussion .............................................................................. 319

WORKSHOP: THE CENSUS UNDERCOUNT

Moderator

William Exum, Chair .............................................................. 336
African-American Studies Department
Northwestern University and Illinois Council for Black Studies
Overview

Phillip Hauser, Department of Sociology (Emeritus). ........................................338
University of Chicago; Former Acting Director, Bureau of the Census

Black Undercount

Rev. George Riddick, Operation PUSH ......................................................... 351
Former Chair, Census Bureau Advisory Committee on the Black
Population

Asian American Undercount

William Liu, Sociology Department ............................................................ 381
University of Illinois (Circle)
Census Bureau Advisory Committee on the Asian-American Population

Native-American Undercount

Susan Power, Native American Community. .................................................. 371

Hispanic Undercount

Eva Vera, Director-Chicago Census Project ................................................. 375
Mexican-American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF)

Paper

“Hispanics and the 1980 Census” by Esther Estrada (MALDEF) .................. 381

Discussion ........................................................................................................398

WORKSHOP: THE BLACK COMMUNITY AND THE CENSUS

Moderator

David Johnson, Chair ..................................................................................... 414
Urban (Black) Studies
Thornton Community College and Illinois Council for Black Studies

Education

Manford Byrd, Deputy Superintendent ......................................................... 417
Chicago Board of Education

Health

Edward Palmer, Executive Director ............................................................ 420
Comphrard, Inc.

Housing

Wyman Winston, Director ............................................................................. 425
South Shore Housing Center

Mississippi

Les Range, Director ...................................................................................... 455
Office of Black Economic Development
Mississippi Research and Development Center

Community Development

Leon Finney, President ................................................................................... 464
The Woodlawn Organization (T.W.O.)

Paper

“Neighborhood Economic Development: Myth or Fact?” .......................... 489

Census Bureau

Mary Grady, Regional Community Services Coordinator (Chicago), Bureau of the Census

Discussion ........................................................................................................502

WORKSHOP: BLACK STUDIES AND THE CENSUS

Moderator

Essie Rutledge, Chair ..................................................................................... 515
Afro-American Studies Department
Western Illinois University and Illinois Council for Black Studies

Paper

“Studying the Black Experience with the 1980 Census” ............................... 534
Nampeo McKenney
Assistant Chief, Population Division, Bureau of the Census

Paper

Ronald Bailey
African-American Studies/Political Science Departments, North-western University and Illinois Council for Black Studies

Paper

“Census Data in Research, Teaching, and Studying the Conditions of Black Women” ................................................................. 601
Linda Williams
Department of Political Science
Howard University

Paper

“The Significance of the Black Population Undercount in the Production and Use of Health and Mortality Statistics” ................................. 626
Robert Davis
Department of Sociology/Social Service
North Carolina A&T University

Discussion ........................................................................................................841

CLOSING PLENARY

Convenors

Cheryl Johnson and Gerald McWorter ......................................................... 545
Co-Chairs of the Illinois Council for Black Studies

APPENDIX

Promotional Brochure for “Black People and the 1980 Census: A Conference on The Population Undercount” (October 1979) ........................................... 881